

October Knowledge Month

Lectorate Lifelong Learning in Music & the Arts

Food for the mind

Programme

English is spoken throughout the whole programme.
Students & teachers Academie Minerva are also very welcome to attend!

Friday 2 October - 17.00 hours

World Café: Research Practices & Pizza – Grand Café

Join in vivid discussions and discover the researcher in yourself!

Tuesday 6 October - 17.00 hours

Presentation Lectorate Lifelong Learning in Music & the Arts and Research Centre Art & Society – Andrea Elkenbracht Hall

Thursday 8 October - 17.00 hours

Lecture-recital 'Metamorphoses; the Art of the Romantic Virtuoso Piano Transcription'

Presentation doctoral research Rian de Waal – Andrea Elkenbracht Hall

Monday 12 October - 17.00 hours

Lecture doctoral research Rineke Smilde 'Musicians as Lifelong Learners: Discovery through

Biography' – Andrea Elkenbracht Hall

Wednesday 14 October - 17.00 hours

Presentations doctoral research by teachers in the lectorate – Grand Café

Robert Harris: 'The Role of Cerebral Resonance Behaviour in the Control of Music Performance'

Evert Bisschop Boele: 'Listeners in the Multi-Musical Soundscape'

Marc van Roon: 'Tasting the Sweetness: Emerging Intangibles of Music'

Monday 26 October – 17.00 hours

Lecture and discussion – Grand Café

Marinus Verkuil: 'Inter-disciplinarity in the arts, an exploration' with Master Art Education

Hanzehogeschool Groningen & Noordelijke Hogeschool Leeuwarden

Thursday 29 October - 17.00 hours

World Café: Research Practices & Pizza – Grand Café

Join in vivid discussions and discover the researcher in yourself!

Free pizza for students and teachers with each part of the programme!

For more info about the October Knowledge Month: www.lifelonglearninginmusic.org