

Engineering the Future programme – 3 December

When?	What?	Who?
Student instruction: 1. please make sure that you complete your professional profile well in advance (you can use the Engineering the Future app for that purpose). 2. Please look at the fine print before you sign up for workshops and/or book appointments with individual companies. Many companies request that you prepare in advance.
9.15 - 9.30 AM	Welcome to Engineering the Future!	Bart Brandts Buys ¹
9.30 – 9.40	Introduction and event walkthrough	Bart Brandts Buys
9.40 – 10.00	Keynote: the future is close by	Joost Krebbekx programme manager at Innovation Cluster Drachten
10.00 – 10.05	Workshop walkthrough	Bart Brandts Buys
10.05 – 10.35	1. workshops: round 1 2. individual (pre-booked) company representative – student meetings > connect with company representatives and arrange an appointment
RWE climate game Limited to 10 students!	Get Motivated 2.0! WtbE	Shape your career! Complete the test in advance Matschstudent
		Let's Meet Tetra Pak . . .
		Working as an engineer at Demcon, by Sharon Ottens (mechanical engineer)
		Bilfinger Tebodin is Engineering The Future
10.35 – 10.45	Recap, and student company success moment 1: The BeeKee
10.45- 11.15	1. workshops: round 2 2. individual (pre-booked) company representative – student meetings > connect with company representatives and arrange an appointment
RWE climate game Limited to 10 students!	Pitch camp for startups WtbE	Shape your career! Complete the test in advance Matschstudent
		Let's Meet Tetra Pak . . .
		Working as an engineer at Demcon, by Sharon Ottens (mechanical engineer)
		Bilfinger Tebodin is Engineering The Future
11.15 – 11.25	Student company success moment 2: 20 to go and carousel preparation
11.25 – 11.45	Carousel
11.45 – 12.00	Rounding off with one more student company success story!
12 noon – 5 PM	Optional: opportunity to meet company representatives

¹ No introduction needed. Once you get to know him, you won't forget him.