10-12 April 2018

International conference on Resilient and Responsible Architecture & Urbanism (RRAU) 2018

Between 10-12 April 2018 the Research Centre for Built Environment NoorderRuimte, part of the Hanze University of Applied Sciences, will host an international conference on resilient and responsible architecture and urbanism.

Topics include:
- ramping up Net Energy Zero buildings
- future proofing and occupant satisfaction of Net Energy Zero buildings
- energy efficient urban areas
- resource efficiency & circular processes
- governance
- water management in the built environment

More info on www.rrau18.nl